An aerial photograph of Rome, Italy, with district boundaries overlaid. The map is divided into several horizontal sections by thin black lines. Each section is labeled with a district name in black capital letters. The labels are: TOR SAPIENZA (top), TOR TRE TESTE, VIALE ALESSANDRINO, TORRE MAURA, VIALE CIAMARRA (right side); and CENTOCELLE, CASILINO, TORRE SPACCATA, TUSCOLANO (left side). The map shows a dense urban area with a grid-like street pattern. Major roads are highlighted in blue, and some areas are highlighted in red. There are also green patches representing parks or open spaces.
